MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : SA/DCI/IA

SUBJECT : Breakfast Meeting with Secretary Weinberger and Deputy Secretary Carlucci, 30 April 1982

1. The following items have been proposed for your meeting tomorrow morning with Weinberger and Carlucci.

[REDACTED] 25X1
[REDACTED] 25X1

Following that meeting, according to Weinberger's staff, Haig was to draft a policy statement putting forth the agreed position. He has apparently not yet done so, but Secretary Weinberger does not agree with your position. He received on 26 March a cable

[REDACTED] 25X1

I do not believe your position has changed, and I double-checked with Evan Hineman to see if there is any additional backup material relevant to your discussion. Evan suggested that the material provided for your meeting with Secretary Haig on 5 April is still relevant and contains the essence of your position.

-- [REDACTED] 25X1

-- Falklands crisis. As you know, we are reaching a point where hostilities could break out at any moment. To support a discussion of this subject, the PDBers will make sure that you have the latest information and talking points tomorrow morning before your meeting.

-- Technology transfer [redacted] [redacted] this morning, Secretary Weinberger asked about the news report reportedly sourced to a CIA document on the loss of defense technology to the Soviets via [redacted] contact. It appears that the Post got its information from the recent unclassified report on Soviet acquisition of Western technology. [redacted] has sent a copy of the report to the Secretary, who may want to discuss it further with you tomorrow. I understand from his staff that General Stilwell's people did a damage assessment. If you have not read it yourself, you may wish to ask Weinberger about it.

2. Because of the concern at the moment about the budget, I thought it might be fruitful for you to discuss the status of the budget with Defense.
Carlucci, however, said that he does not wish to discuss the budget tomorrow.
Either he or Secretary Weinberger may have attended today's Cabinet meeting on the budget and may, therefore, be willing to brief you on what transpired.
We received no feedback from the Director because of his departure following the meeting.
